Where did you hear about OpenOffice.org?	Red Hat Distro
Your Operating System(s):	Linux
Version of OpenOffice.org you migrated to:	'1.1.0
Previous Office Suite (if any):	MSOffice97. But mostly DOS applications like WordPerfect / QPro
Reason for Migrating to OpenOffice.org:	High licensing costs. Ease of use.
How easy did you (or your users) find it to migrate?	Very easy. Converting old files in bulk was possible.
Do you use any other Office Suite/Application and why?	One workstation running Win98 + MSOffice. Some incoming / outgoing documents have to be checked for 100% formatting in MSOffice formats.
Do you have any “wishes” for OpenOffice.org?	Always but nothing that is a road block to migration.
What features in OpenOffice.org do you like?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Many new features that we did not see in MSOffice97. 2. Export document to HTML / Flash / PDF 3. Ease of use / training.
What do you dislike about OOO?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Slow working on very very large spreadsheets >5MB 2. Can do with better translations to .doc formats as the world is still clued on only to MS suites.
